Please read the criteria and FAQ section carefully before considering applying

II Duties and responsibilities

The JPO is required to support the work of UNEP in successfully implementing the Montevideo V Programme. There is a significant amount of work needed to fulfil UNEP's functions as Secretariat, as well as in undertaking and supporting the substantive environmental law activities required to be implemented under the programme at the request of Member States. The JPO would play an important role in supporting these functions. It is a very exciting opportunity for a young environmental lawyer and a platform to work with all Member States.

Responsibilities

- Under the overall guidance of his/her supervisor, the JPO will:
- Assist in performing UNEP's roles and functions as Secretariat under the Montevideo V Programme, including the servicing of meetings, preparation of background documents, and preparing meeting reports;
- Conduct legal research on a diverse range of assigned issues in environmental law under the Montevideo V Programme;
- Assist in administering capacity building programmes for Member States on environmental law under the Montevideo V Programme;
- Assist in the review of legal documents, instruments, or other material on environmental law and related areas under the Montevideo V Programme;
- Assist in the preparation of legal opinions/advice on a wide range of environmental law issues under the Montevideo V Programme; and

- Perform other relevant duties as assigned.

III Training component: Learning elements and expectations

Training and Learning Elements

On the job training: The JPO will receive unique experience and training within the Law Division of UNEP on environmental law under the aegis of the Montevideo V Programme, as well as skills in diplomacy thorough interacting with Member States.

UN training courses: The JPO will be required to take several training courses that are mandatory for UN staff. He/she will also be invited to take other training courses developed by the UN system or by UNEP to enhance his/her performance.

Upon completion of the assignment the JPO will have/ will be able to:

After one year the JPO can:

- Draft background materials and summaries of environmental law meetings according to standards required by the Law Division and consistent with UN style format and protocol.
- Prepare high-quality well-reasoned and clearly written recommendations, opinions and identification of issues on environmental law issues.
- Have a clear understanding of the main intergovernmental and inter-agency processes relevant to international environmental law, the global environmental sustainability and sustainable development agendas.

After two years the JPO can:

- Conduct high quality legal research on international environmental law including analysis and presentation of key information to facilitate decision-making.
- Develop and implement capacity building programmes in environmental law.
- Diplomatically interact with confidence and effectiveness with Member States.

The JPO training programme includes the following learning elements:

- Some travel anticipated of two to three missions a year, subject to funding.
- The JPO position includes a Duty travel and training allowance (DTTA) of $4000 per year which may be used for learning activities related to the assignment and career development.

IV Supervision

Title of supervisor: TBD

Content and methodology of supervision

The structure of the Law Division is currently under review following an ongoing functional review of UNEP and a new structure is anticipated to be in place in Q1 2026. The JPO will be placed appropriately into this new structure, together with supervision by a suitable colleague.

The JPO will receive an introduction the Law Division and the Montevideo V Programme, as well as on the overall work of UNEP, including the UN Environment Assembly and the Committee of Permanent Representatives, and of the UN, including the General Assembly, the Economic and Social Council, the Human Rights Council, and the High-Level Political Forum, and relevant UN specialised agencies, funds and programmes.

The JPO will carry out regular discussion and evaluation with his/her supervisor in line with an agreed workplan. This will include, inter-alia, a review of accomplishments, problems, job-satisfaction, development plans and learning objectives.

V Required Qualifications and Experience

VI Background information on Agency/Department/Section

The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) is the leading global environmental authority that sets the global environmental agenda, promotes the coherent implementation of the environmental dimension of the sustainable development agenda within the United Nations system and serves as an authoritative advocate for the global environment. This position is in UNEP's Law

Division at its Headquarters in Nairobi, Kenya. The Law Division is the lead Division charged with carrying out the functions of UNEP in the field of environmental law, governance and related policy issues, including those related to Multilateral Environmental Agreements (MEAs).

The Law Division also leads UNEP's role as Secretariat to the Fifth Montevideo Programme on the Development and Periodic Review of Environmental Law (Montevideo V Programme). The Montevideo V Programme is ten-year intergovernmental programme adopted by the UN Environment Assembly at its fourth meeting in March 2019. The Montevideo V Programme will promote the environmental rule of law, strengthen the related capacities in countries, and contribute to the environmental dimension of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The programme formally commenced in January 2020 and is a flagship initiative of the Law Division.

VII Information on living conditions at Duty Station

The UN classifies Nairobi as a class B duty station. Nairobi enjoys normal living conditions for a developing country in Africa. Comprehensive security advice and support is provided upon arrival.
